“ Sweet Home “

Our family lived in this house about 12 years.It has a basement and upstairs. In the spring,Ilike to read in the upstairs room low ceiling window. It’s bright enough to read without the lights on.In summer, I like to stay in the basement. It’s a cool place to relax after I get back tired from a hot day. One side of the livingroom wall is a window.I like to look outside through this window.Especially winter and fall. When my boy was little,he likedto drink in front of the fireplace after he played in the snow. Now, the flowers are blossoming and the trees are growing thickly.In this house, my daughter and my son have grown up.I
