

National Crime Victims' Rights Week

April 8th & April 9th

Join us at DMACC West to show support of survivors and victims of crime in our community.

Tuesday, April 8th

10:00 AM - Outside around West Campus lake

- DMACC Libraries Story Walk - Book Title: Rain Before Rainbows

11:00 AM - 3:00 PM - Ellipse

- Student Showcase and Crime Victims' Rights Historical Panels

11:30 AM - 12:30 PM - Auditorium

- "Exposing Hidden Scars: Transforming Trauma into Triumph"

Presenter/Author, Cheyenne Hanson

Author & Douglas County, NE Deputy Cheyenne Hanson is a survivor of 14 years of domestic and sexual violence. In her memoir, Hidden Scars, she shares her powerful journey from captivity to courage. Her story is a testament to resilience, survival, and reclaiming life after trauma.

Wednesday, April 9th

8:00 AM - 2:00 PM - Ellipse

- Student Showcase and Crime Victims' Rights Historical Panels

8:30 AM - 9:30 AM - Auditorium

- Natalie Lampey - Iowa Attorney General's Office - presentation

9:00 AM - 2:00 PM - Ellipse

- Resource Tables
 - ADMYRE Program (Iowa State)
 - Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence
 - Employee and Family Resources
 - Iowa Office of Recovery Services - NAMI
 - West Des Moines Police Department and Fire/MEMT
 - Iowa Attorney General's Office

10:00 AM - 11:00 AM - Auditorium

- Iowa State ADMYRE presentation

11:00 AM - 1:00 PM - Front of West Campus

- West Des Moines Police Department & Paramedics with Mobile Crime Lab

1:00 PM - 2:00 PM - Auditorium - Live Stream

- "Exposing Hidden Scars: Transforming Trauma into Triumph"
Presenter/Author, Cheyenne Hanson

Natalie Lampey works as a Resource Coordinator for the victim assistance section of the Attorney General's Office, previously as the victim specialist. Natalie holds a dual Bachelor of Science degree in Human Services and Psychology and a Master of Science in Psychology with 3 years of Post-Graduate (Doctoral) education. Natalie has over 22 years of combined experience working with youth, adults and families in areas such as child and family services, and juvenile/criminal justice.

Natalie has provided advocacy and supportive services, outreach, consultation, facilitation, and training/education in the area of domestic violence, mental health, substance abuse, behavior modification and serious emotional disturbances. Natalie holds several certifications, including Certified Victim advocate.

Hannah Ulrich received a bachelor's degree in Family Consumer Sciences and Education Studies from Iowa State University. With over four years of experience facilitating life skills programs for youth and emerging adults, she serves as a Project Coordinator for PIAL, where she leads the College Advocating for My Relationships (ADMYRE) dating violence awareness program. Hannah is dedicated to equipping young people with the tools they need to foster safe, healthy relationships.

The Advocating for My Relationships (ADMYRE) Program is a dating violence awareness program where participants follow a true story of a person experiencing dating violence and a robust debrief where they learn how to recognize signs of dating violence and advocate for healthy relationships.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

DMACC
West Des Moines

SCAN TO LEARN MORE!

