

DMACC OPPORTUNITY Scholarship Fundraiser

Join us for an evening of elegance, inspiration, and impact

This new scholarship fund supports highly motivated, low-income students. Your support honors President Denson's legacy and ensures it will impact students for generations to come.

This special event features performances by:

Simon Estes, World Renowned Opera Singer and Humanitarian
Dr. James Thompson, Opera Singer and DMACC Program Chair
Professor Talita Pizarro Matosv, Pianist

$1,140 per person
($1,050 of which is a tax-deductible gift)

DMACC's Iowa Culinary Institute®
DMACC Ankeny Campus
2006 S Ankeny Blvd. Bldg. 7, Ankeny, Iowa
Dress is Cocktail Attire

Wednesday, November 12, 2025

6:00 pm Registration, Champagne Reception & Performance
Doors open at 5:45 pm
6:30 pm Dinner with Performance

To learn more about the Opportunity Scholarship
or make a donation visit:
OPPORTUNITY.DMACC.EDU

"While there are many uncertainties in life, one sure thing is the value of an education and what it can do for an individual. This scholarship initiative is an investment in our future."

—DMACC President Rob Denson

To reserve your place, please contact:

Kristi Miller, Iowa Culinary Institute® | kdmler9@dmacc.edu

Please RSVP for this exclusive event on or before Monday, November 3, 2025

Rob Denson, DMACC President and the DMACC Foundation
2006 S Ankeny Blvd., Bldg. 22, Ankeny, IA 50023
Email: foundation@dmacc.edu | Phone: 515-964-6229

DMACC | FOUNDATION